

Celtic Art & Spirit Tour Scotland & Ireland

4th - 27th June 2008

Take a journey through the Celtic Lands to experience the sacred landscape and culture that has inspired beautiful art forms in stone and books for thousands of years and thrives today in lively contemporary art and music.

St Martin's Cross, Iona

For more information on tour content, please email Lynne Sinclair-Wood at <brigid@chariot.net.au.>

Enquiries on bookings, flights, & other travel contact David Neale at Freeway Travel, Stirling SA (Lic.no TTA17)
Ph. 08 83709244 or Email: david@freewaytravel.com.au
www.freewaytravel.com.au

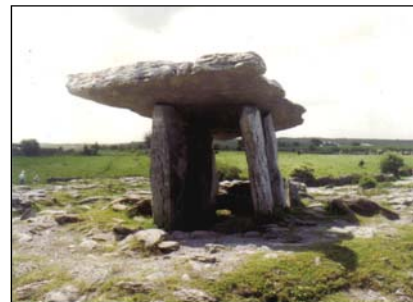

Stone spiral carvings at Newgrange

Cahir castle, Co. Tipperary

Medieval stone carving, Roslin Chapel

Poul.-na-broun Dolmen Co. Clare

Iona

In Scotland:

Visit the galleries and museums of Edinburgh;
Explore enigmatic Roslin Chapel with its beautiful pagan-inspired Medieval carving.
Travel north east to see Pictish art sites;
Go west for Celtic crosses on the sacred Isle of Iona;
Explore the ancient stone monuments of Kilmartin Valley

In Ireland:

Marvel at the ancient spirals of Newgrange;
Visit Christian Celtic crosses in County Clare;
Summer Solstice in the Arann Isles making Celtic patterns;
Hear traditional music in Galway.
See the beautiful medieval Book of Kells & contemporary Irish art in the galleries of Temple Bar in Dublin

We travel with a small group of 10 people led by experienced guide & expert on Celtic art & culture, Lynne Sinclair Wood, staying in comfortable B/B accommodation with some evening meals included.